Bill Descriptions

Priority Bills We Support:

SB 5451/HB 1325 Allowing Review of Long Sentences for Crimes Committed Before Age 25

Currently, people who committed crimes before age 18 can have lengthy sentences reviewed. This bill would increase the age from 18 to 25, recognizing that brain science shows that our brains do not become fully developed until age 25. SB 5451 was referred to the Senate Law & Justice Committee on Jan. 18. HB 1325 was referred to the House Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry Committee on Jan. 16.

HB 1025 Private Right of Action for People Harmed by Peace Officers

This bill authorizes a private right of action for violations of the state Constitution or state law by peace officers—the state equivalent of a federal §1983 action. It does not allow peace officers to rely on the qualified immunity defense to avoid liability—i.e., it is not a defense that the law was not “clearly established” with respect to the acts or omissions at issue. HB 1025 had a hearing in the House Civil Rights & Judiciary Committee on Jan. 25.

HB 1174 Ensuring Access for Voters in Jails

This bill requires county auditors to create a jail voting plan for each jail in the county and requires jails to provide access to voting materials to people in jail in accordance with the voting plan. It also mandates that jails allow election officials to enter the jails at least 30 days before each primary and general election to provide voter registration outreach and education. The bill was scheduled for executive session on Jan. 25 in the House State Government & Tribal Relations Committee, but no action was taken.

HB 1324/SB 5475 Eliminating juvenile offenses from offender scores

These bills eliminate juvenile offenses from offender scores used to determine sentencing ranges for crimes. HB 1324 is scheduled for executive session on Feb. 2 at 8:00 am in the House Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry Committee. SB 5475 was referred to the Senate Law & Justice Committee on Jan. 19.

HB 1445 Attorney General Investigations and Reform

This bill gives the Attorney General's Office the authority to investigate law enforcement and local corrections agencies that have engaged in systemic violations of the Washington constitution or state laws. HB 1445 had a public hearing in the House Civil Rights & Judiciary Committee on Jan. 25.

Other Bills We Support:

SB 5383/HB 1428 Legalizing Jaywalking

These bills address the longtime racial bias in enforcement of jaywalking laws and allow pedestrians to cross a roadway at any point as long as it's reasonably safe to do so. SB 5383 was referred to the Senate Transportation Committee on Jan. 16. HB 1428 was referred to the House Transportation Committee on Jan. 18.

HB 1062 Deception during interrogations by law enforcement officers

This bill provides that statements made during custodial interrogations are presumed to be inadmissible if the law enforcement officer intentionally engaged in deception in obtaining the statement. It was referred to the House Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry Committee on Jan. 9.

HB 1169 Legal Financial Obligations

This bill builds upon HB 1412 passed last year and allows for the waiver of certain legal financial obligations owed by defendants who have been convicted. It passed out of the House Civil Rights & Judiciary Committee on Jan. 27.

HB 1177 Creating a Cold Case Investigations Unit for Missing and Murdered Indigenous People

This bill creates the Cold Case Investigations Unit within the Attorney General's Office to assist law enforcement agencies with solving cold cases involving missing and murdered indigenous people. It is scheduled for executive session Jan. 26 at 8:00 am in the House Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry Committee.

HB 1354 Volunteering in Schools After a Criminal Conviction

This bill limits the circumstances under which a school may deny a parent's volunteer application based on a previous criminal conviction. It was referred to the House Education Committee on Jan. 16.

HB 1492 Establishes procedures for relief for people affected by State v. Blake

This bill establishes procedures and requirements for vacating convictions, resentencing, and refunding legal obligations pursuant to the Washington Supreme Court's decision in State v. Blake, which held that Washington's felony drug possession statute was unconstitutional. It was scheduled for executive session Jan. 27, but no action was taken.

Bills We Oppose:

SB 5361 Encouraging Local Governments to Hire More Police Officers

This bill authorizes cities and counties to impose additional sales and use taxes to hire more law enforcement officers. It does not prioritize alternative responses and ignores data showing a lack of correlation between crime rates and the number of police officers. It passed out of the Senate Law & Justice Committee on Jan. 26.
