Know Your Representatives: 2022 TRY Now Available

The 2022 edition of the League's They Represent You: Directory of Elected Officials (known as the TRY), which is produced by the LWV of Seattle-King County, is now available to download. Learn more!

Tree Campaign Update in

These trees weren't planted 20 years ago. In recent years, large, single-family developments broadly scrape the trees and soil off the land. Now we know better, so it's time to update the county code to reflect new understandings. Read more here.

Dealing with Stress in a World of Overwhelm

So many things to do, so little time. While spending time dealing with our own issues (personal, family, and friends), League members have the added stress of being aware of the challenges to our democracy. Learn more about what you can do here.

2022 Lobby Week Another Success

The League of Women Voters of Washington and Fix Democracy First hosted more than 200 participants in January's second virtual Lobby Week. Core issues in democracy (including elections, voting, money in politics) as well as climate and transportation bills were highlighted. Learn more.
